EDITOR'S STATEMENT

This School year perhaps more than any other was a year of fads and fashions, with many diverse trends and ideas interacting together.

It was a year of Day-Glo colors and a year of Break Dancers.

Groups like Prince and The Revolution, The Cure, The Time, Madonna, and Sheila E. set trends that were eagerly followed by many students.

Never before have there been so many different styles in effect all at once, individuals felt free to express themselves. What a Year!

THE BEST THE YEAR HAD TO OFFER

The box office really hit it big this year while television held its own. It was the year for cable television, with every house receiving "The Box" which allowed MTV, PBS and, depending on what was paid for, maybe even HBO, Cinemax or ONTV to come into the "viewers own home." The networks found it a hard battle competing with cable, but they did fight with an exceptional line-up of fall shows and controversial movies waiting in the wings. Farrah Fawcett proved herself to be a noteworthy actress by portraying a battered housewife who finally gets revenge in "The Burning Bed." Teen suicide was the touchy topic of "Surviving" which starred Molly Ringwald and Zach Galligan. On the lighter side, Bill Cosby found a hit with "The Cosby Show", and Scott Baio enjoyed star status once again with "Charles in Charge." The Olympics placed first in the ratings race, which was not an unexpected surprise. The silver screen suddenly found itself overrun with country movies such as "The River" and "Places in the Heart." The politics of other countries were found in the "The Falcon and the Snowman" and "The Killing Fields." Old favorites were back, with "Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom" and Eddie Murphy in the smash "Beverly Hills Cop." Over all, this was the year music stars to take over the box office. Sting made his debut in the Science fiction hit "Dune." Paul McCartney gave his regards to Broadstreet, while Madonna lined up two vehicles: "Desperately Seeking Susan" and "Vision Quest." The unquestionable sensation was Prince's "Purple Rain." This movie ruled the summer box office and is still going strong in VCR sales. Viewers received an inside look at the cliques in high schools with the sensitive portrayals of five talented actors and actresses in "The Breakfast Club." What a year!

VOLLEYBALL

There are certain things Hueneme High is noted for: one of these things is our exceptional volleyball team. It's almost traditional for the girls to do well. No matter what, they always gave their best. Coach Shimabuku gave the girls a strenuous work-out, but their sweat paid off as they pulled in victory after victory for the red and white.

Their accomplishments were; 7 wins, 7 losses and they also took 3rd place in the Thousand Oaks Tournament. It's been a good season and they've improved greatly this year.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Giti Rafii

Hello, my name is Giti Rafii. I'm a foreign exchange student from Cologne, Germany. There are so many things to do in the U.S.A., especially California. Germany doesn't even compare to the U.S.A. Having the beach close to my house, watching football and MTV are all new things I enjoy. Having fast food every week is great, and drive-thru windows are very new for me. People are lucky to live in California. I think it's the nicest place in the world to live.

*Hallo,
mein Name ist Giti Rafii und ich bin eine Austauschschülerin
aus Köln, Deutschland.
Viele Dinge sind anders in Californien als in Deutschland.
Zum Beispiel in der Nähe des
Strandes zu wohnen, Football,
Baseball und MTV anzuschauen.
"Fast Food places" mit "Drive-thru windows" war ebenfalls sehr neu
für mich.
Ich bin froh in Californien zu leben, denn ich denke es ist der schönste Platz wo man nur leben kann.*

...ARE RIGHT ON!

My name is Aki Wagai. I come from Sendai in Japan. I like Hueneme High School, California, and the U.S.A. It's very different from my country. My new experiences include watching American football, eating a taco, changing classes every period, going to a drive-in movie, and going to the beach in February. I hope when I go back to Japan I won't be a strange California girl. Someday, I'll be back to the U.S.A. Please, don't forget me.

Aki Wagai

私の名前は和賀井 亜希己です。日本の仙台から来ました。ここは日本とはかなり違います。私はこの学校でも、カリフォルニアでもアメリカでも女子です。

私は"アメリカ"を全部見た。色々な出来事を経験します。アメリカ、フットボールを見た、メキシコ料理のタコを食べた。毎日学校で勉強をがんばった、映画と車の内から見た、2月の中旬に海に行きました。

私は"日本"に帰った日、カリフォルニアの生活になじめない感じがします。17の日は、私はがんばります。22日までです。

私のことを忘れないで下さいね、

SHE'S GOT THAT SPANISH STYLE!

SPANISH EXCHANGE STUDENT

Hi! I'm Teresa Sivatte. I'm the exchange student from Barcelona, Spain. I really like it here a lot because I've done some really weird things. But I have joined some clubs like ASB, CSF, Future Leaders, and the tennis team. I went Whale watching and I got sea sick. I rode in the senior car in the homecoming even though I am a junior. Well, these are really weird things for me. I guess I have to say that I love California! Thanks all for being my friends. I shall be back.

Love,
Teresa Sivatte

Hola!
Yo soy Teresa Sivatte.
Soy la estudiante extranjera de Barcelona, España.
Me encanta este país, porque aquí he hecho cosas extrañas que no había hecho nunca como pertenecer a ASB, CSF, Future Leaders y al equipo de Tenis; ir a ver ballenas y marcarme y ir en el coche de los de CO.U en Homecoming a pesar de que estoy en Tercero de B.U.P.
Bueno realmente cosas extrañas para mí, y además vosotros tenéis cosas que nosotras no tenemos como football, baseball and MTU.
Creo que tengo que decir que me encantan los chicos (tros) de CALIFORNIA.
Gracias todos por ser mis amigos.

Volvere,
con cariño
Teresa
